

Sept. 14, 1926.

Mr. T. N. Pfeiffer,
120 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

Please find my report in the Hall-Mills case.

I called at No. 47 Ray Street, New Brunswick, New Jersey, and interviewed Officer James Curran. He said that he was on Easton Avenue on duty when Officer Garrigan and George Cathers came along in an automobile and he went with them to De Reussey's Lane. He stopped at the Stryker home and was met there by Raymond Schneider.
He showed them where the bodies laid. Said that he just looked at the bodies and did not recognize either of them at that time. He saw some letters torn up around there, but he is positive that he did not see any cards lying against Mr. Hall's shoe. Said that he did not take notice as to how thick the brush and trees were at that time. Said that he went out of De Reussey's Lane on Easton Avenue to wait for the Somerset County authorities, and when they came and took charge, he went back to New Brunswick.

Yours truly,

John Gregory Jr
